Three Rolls Broken.

A costly and remarkable feat was performed at the La Belle plate mill yesterday, three rolls at the "three-high" mill being broken almost simultaneously. This unfortunate accident will amount to about $1,000 and will throw off several men until the new rolls are put in.

A Dog Caused It.

The contra cases in which George West and John Blattner were prosecutor and defendant and vice versa, were disposed of yesterday by Squire Rogers, who dismissed several of the charges and held each under a peace bond. Blattner paid, but West was short and accordingly became a guest of Mine Host McCormick. The trouble arose from West throwing water on Blattner's dog. Most any man will fight for his dog, so fight they did.

A WOMAN BURNED

Terribly in a South Side Fire Yesterday Afternoon.

A GASOLINE STOVE EXPLODED

And the Clothes of Miss Annie Jones Caught Fire—Before a Blanket had Smothered out the Flames she was Badly Burned—A Brother Jumps From a Second Story Window and Injures Himself—The Loss Small.

A blaze in the kitchen of the house occupied by David Jones, 2626 Alley C, yesterday afternoon, while inconsequential as to property loss, resulted in Mr. Jones' daughter, Miss Annie, being terribly burned. The affair occurred about 2:15 p. m., and the accident feature was lamentable, Miss Jones being a mass of flames in the presence of a number of spectators, who were apparently too terrified to rush to her assistance until she almost died from the burns.

The young lady was ironing in the kitchen and the gasoline stove exploded. The flaming liquid seized her as she stood between the stove and the wall, thus enveloping her before she could escape. She rushed out of the kitchen with her clothes on fire and her screams aroused the neighborhood. Unfortunately, the neighboring women were terror-stricken and assistance was delayed too long. Miss Margaret Grull finally wrapped the suffering girl in a blanket and others carried her into an adjoining house.

Miss Jones was burned almost from head to foot, her face especially, and the crisped flesh was a sight that moved the sympathy of all who saw her. Dr. Rau was summoned promptly and did all in his power to relieve her pain. Miss Jones suffered severely from the shock, and her injuries are so serious that last night it was reported that her recovery was doubtful.

The loss by fire to the house amounted to about $50. The Niagara's chemical extinguished the blaze. In running to the scene, the Hook & Ladder's wagon had an exciting experience. While the horses galloped down Chapline the driver noticed a child at the Twenty-fifth street intersection. The driver was forced to turn to avoid running down the child, and as a huckster wagon occupied the other side of the street, the ladder truck was turned short. A collision with telephone poles at the curb occurred, but happily it was not serious.

When his daughter first screamed, Mr. Jones and his son, who are employed on night turn at the La Belle mill, jumped out of bed and leaped from an upstairs window. Young Jones burned his hands in trying to rescue his sister.

Meeting of the Woodmen.

The Modern Woodmen of America, a fraternal organization with insurance features, held a meeting last night, in their lodge rooms at the Odd Fellows' hall. The feature was the address by Hon. E. E. Murphy, of Kansas, a member of the national board of directors, who discussed the beauties and benefits of fraternal insurance as administered by the Modern Woodmen of America. His splendid address well repaid the audience for turning out on such a sultry night. As a result of Mr. Murphy's lucid and plain talk several applications for membership were received.

This order is growing rapidly in Wheeling and gradually extending all over the country. Other addresses made last night were by Charles R. Wilson, of Huntington, and Alex. Foreman, of Grafton. Mr. Foreman is the state deputy. The Wheeling branch will shortly form a team to exemplify the ritual.
